New events headline Canada Day lineup

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Three new events and the return of an old favorite are highlights of Elk Point's 2005 Canada Day lineup, which will keep the community hopping from early Thursday evening until the wee hours of July 2.

One of the most exciting newcomers is a Strong Man competition organized by Roger Smith, who has competed in many of these events.

"I'm not competing this time, I'm just the organizer," he emphasizes, adding that "you don't have to be super-strong to enter. Pretty much anyone over 180 pounds can do the job, even in-shape smaller guys. Everybody has a chance of winning."

The Strong Man events, to be held rain or shine on the outdoor rink north of the A. G. Ross Arena, include pulling a 1944 Ford 3-ton truck, lifting a steel log over your head "as many times as you can in 90 seconds," and lifting two pipe wrenches in a sideways hold "to see who can hold them the longest." Then there's a medley in which participants tip over a tire three or four times, carry a weight, put it on a metal sled and drag the weight and sled back across the finish line.

Smith is looking for 20 entrants, and "I'm halfway there," he says. He has also had excellent response from sponsors, who are making the event possible.

"I'm hoping it will be fun for those who enter and those who compete," Smith says. "My long-term goal is that it could become a sanctioned qualifier for higher level events."

Another new event is a beef-on-a-bun supper and refreshments at the Elks Hall, which will dovetail with the return of an old favorite: the tug-of-war, which is being brought back by the Elk Point Oilmen's Association, and will be held behind the FCSS office.

Meanwhile, downstairs in the Elks Hall, the younger set will enjoy games, a clown and other activities, along with hot dogs and pop.

Another brand-new event is the Amazing Farm Survival Race, which organizers David Pilisko and Laverne Wilson are predicting will be fun for participants and spectators alike. The Race will be held south of Railway Avenue, beginning at 6 p.m.

Teams of one man and one woman, of any age, will take part in events which simulate "a day's work on the farm," Pilisko says. These include some tractor driving, setting up corral panels, handling rocks and carrying water. "They're little skills, and it's a timed event with judges at each station." Pilisko will be taking applications at the pancake breakfast, and will accept the first 13 teams.

Fur trade fun will once again make an appearance, with the Fort George and Buckingham House staff on hand near the Canada Day stage right after the parade. Old time events such as log sawing and nail-pounding are on the agenda, and will give a taste of what's to come in the Great Family Fur Factor Challenge on July 9 at the Forts.

A stage show headlined by Michael Carey, homemade pie and Canada Day cake and food concessions will all be part of the afternoon, and Canada Day will wind up with the traditional beerfest.

Centennial trail relay coming July 9

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Sheila Thompson of the Riverland Recreational Trail Society visited the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce during their final meeting before the summer break, to invite everyone to become part of the Alberta Saskatchewan Trans Canada Trail Centennial Relay which arrives in Elk Point on July 9.

The relay kicked off in Fort Saskatchewan on Saturday, June 18, at an event Thompson emceed, following the Trans Canada Trail's annual meeting in Edmonton. "I was just beside myself with joy" that so many were involved with the event. Trans Canada Trail chairperson Valerie Pringle delivered the flag to a group of Nordic skiers, on roller skis, who were followed by runners and cyclists, as they carried it on the first leg of the relay, handing it over to a wagon train which carried it on to Waskatenau.

The relay is a celebration of trails as well as of the centennials of Alberta and Saskatchewan, and will cover 1,100 kilometres of historic trails. In Alberta, the relay is taking place only on weekends, while the Saskatchewan relay will be done in one day, July 23, with activities at each community along the way.

She added that this event is extra special for north-east Alberta and the Iron Horse Trail, which only recently became an official part of the Trans Canada Trail. The Trans Canada Trail "has erased the original line from Regina to Calgary, and redrawn it to the border [near Onion Lake] and now across to here."

The relay arrived in Ashmont this past weekend, and after taking the Canada Day weekend off, will travel from Ashmont to St. Paul and on to Elk Point on Saturday, July 9, arriving around 5 p.m.

TOPS is helping the Iron Horse Trail committee to prepare the bison-on-a-bun supper. The event also includes speeches, entertainment and the kick-off of an adventure challenge for children.

"The challenge will be issued, and children can bring back the answers the next Saturday," Thompson said, when a farewell breakfast will be held before the relay heads to Heinsburg en route to the border.

Elk Point 4-H celebrates 40 years of learning

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Elk Point 4-H Multi Club looked back at four decades of "learning to do by doing" at their year-end barbecue last Friday evening at Lac Bellevue recreation area.

Members, leaders and parents welcomed sponsors, steer buyers and special guests with a huge barbecue supper, which followed a welcome by Matthew Robinson, and words of thanks by Robyn Ockerman to the many volunteers who assist the club each year. Alanna Ockerman added thanks to parents and grandparents "for all you've done in the 4-H year," from hauling steers and stalls to working bingos.

Overall leader Shelley Tymofichuk told the guests that the club has 30 members involved in a number of projects, including beef steer, heifer, cow-calf, woodworking, scrapbooking and creative options.

"Without the community support, we wouldn't be able to have successful show days," she added. While the club has "really pulled together these past few months to get the job done, the support is what makes things fly."

A number of fun awards, based on each member's characteristics, were given out as well as the major year-end awards and the Awards of Excellence.

North Saskatchewan on the Rise

The North Saskatchewan River reached near-flood proportions last week, with large amounts of logs and debris floating downstream. The T-shaped stake in the close-up at left, photographed Wednesday, marks the inlet for the Town of Elk Point's water pump, and shows how much the river had risen from the previous day, above. Water levels have since receded.

Canada Celebrates Alberta
 1905 - 2005

Canada Day is a time for all Canadians to celebrate what we've achieved together as a nation. This year there's even more cause for celebration. It's Alberta's Centennial... and that's a proud occasion for the whole country.

Albertans have a lot to celebrate. Over the past century, we've harnessed our abundant resources and entrepreneurial spirit to build a province of remarkable boldness, diversity and strength. During the next century, we'll realize even bigger and brighter achievements.

All Canadians are celebrating with us - celebrating our wonderful province and our great people.

Town Council continues cooperative venture

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Elk Point Town Council started off their June 13 meeting by agreeing to once again make a joint application with the Town and County of St. Paul for the Municipal Sponsorship Program. Joint applications are eligible for increased funding over the total grants the municipalities would receive if each applied individually.

Professional development funding

A request for funding to allow staff of the Elk Point Public Library to attend professional development workshops was discussed, with the suggestion made that the library should include this amount in their 2006 budget.

National Aboriginal Day

Council passed a motion to acknowledge and support National Aboriginal Day on June 21. Council felt that this could be an opportunity for special events in the future.

Relay coming through

Information was received on the Alberta-Saskatchewan Trans Canada Trail Centennial Relay, which had left Edmonton the previous day, after a ceremony emceed by Elk Point area Sheila Thompson. The relay will arrive here on July 9 at approximately 5 p.m., and will leave on the next leg of the journey on the morning of July 16. A barbecue supper is being organized by the Iron Horse Trail group and TOPS, and Council voted to donate $250 toward expenses for this event.

Building donated

The Town agreed to accept the donation of a unique, vintage log building, which must be moved from property recently purchased by the donor. Council will decide on an appropriate location for the building at their July meeting.

Tax assistance for seniors

Information was received from Alberta

Municipal Affairs on an education property tax assistance program for seniors, which would pay for the increase in the education tax portion of seniors' property tax over 2004 levels.

This year, the amount of the rebate would be the difference between last year's and this year's figure, while in future years, it will be the difference between 2004 figures and that year's figure. Seniors who have applied to the Alberta Seniors Benefit program will be sent a letter instructing them how to apply for the education tax rebate. Those who have not applied for the Alberta Seniors Benefit program may get an application form or more information by calling 1-800-642-3853.

It was noted that this might not be as much benefit to local seniors as to those in some other areas, as the tax has not increased substantially.

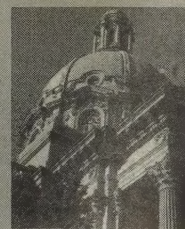

Standardized speed for Trail

North East Muni-Corr is hoping to replace off-highway vehicle bylaws in member municipalities with one standardized bylaw. The municipalities have been asked for input on speed limits and times when no traffic can be allowed on the trail. The Town is recommending 30 km/hr in town limits as the speed limits, but is not planning to make a recommendation regarding the hours. The current town bylaw says no off-road vehicles may operate between 10:30 p.m. and 9:00 a.m., which some councillors feel does not permit trail users to make an early start.

Infrastructure funding program

Council received information on the Alberta Municipal Infrastructure Program Agreement, which has been confirmed for the first three years, with an additional two years dependent on population. Mayor Tung estimates that with the federal gas tax, the Town can accumulate between $2.2 million and $2.5 million in five years.

It takes a whole community

The celebration of Canada Day is all about community. To plan an event of this magnitude, covering a period of time in excess of 30 hours, is no small job, and without a dedicated group of organizations and individuals, it just couldn't happen.

Every year, the Canada Day Committee starts out by wondering what groups will participate, and which businesses, groups and governments will see fit to help fund Elk Point's biggest celebration of the year. Every year, they are grateful when donations start coming in, and when groups send representatives to meetings to say, "we can help with..." or "we'd like to do..." Some years, the donations and volunteering comes thick and fast, sometimes it takes a while. But virtually always, enough donations and volunteers are found to make everything on the proposed lineup become a reality.

In this case, as in many others, it's not just those living or operating businesses within Elk Point that become part of the event. It's the greater community, spreading out in all directions, that gets on board to create success.

It's not just "the greater community" - it's the greatest!

WAY BACK WHEN...

Mills down, mills up, students best all round

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES IN THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF JUNE 28 IN...

1985

The Town of Elk Point brought down their 1985 budget, with a drop of 8.31 percent in the non-residential mill rate to 20.811 mills and a 7.46 percent reduction in the residential mill rate to 16.343 mills. Elk Point's population passed the 1,200 mark, with the total of 1,209 reflecting a 7.9 percent jump since the 1984 figure of 1,113.

1990

Elk Point ratepayers faced a hefty mill rate hike, mostly due to requisitions over which the Town had no control, with non-residential rate rising to 27.9828 and residential to 22.0058 mills, 9.076 mills of each going to the Supplementary School Requisition. Town Council approved the use of Community Tourism Action Plan funding for a 17-site recreational vehicle campsite in Elk Point.

1995

Grace Franks Awards for best all-around students at Elk Point Elementary School were: Sarah Schade (1A), Helen Ramful (1B), Nicholas Myshaniuk (2A), Justin Berg, Valerie Friesen (2B), Kristyn Ballas (3A), Kristin Campbell, Jonathan Buryn (3B), Mark Ference (4A), Tasha Yopyk (4B), Eva Gusnowski, Kirsty Lindquist (4C), Kali Cousins (5A), Leanne Wilson (5B), Joey Farebrother (6A), Julie Young and Joanne DeMoissac (6B).

2000

An evening gospel concert filled with awe-inspiring talent and a message of faith got Canada Day celebrations off to an early start. A reasonable facsimile of Louis Riel visited F. G. Miller High School on Native Awareness Day to tell of life in the Red River Colony and the Canadian Northwest in the late 1800s.

The Elk Point Review publishes a variety of opinions as a contribution to debate on matters of public concern. Unsigned editorials express the view of this newspaper's editorial board which includes the Publisher and the Editor. Signed pieces express the view of the individual writer.

GUEST COLUMN

Canadians aboard!

Yes, that's right! It is time to celebrate Canada's birthday! So let us all come aboard the celebration train of opportunity to acknowledge the birthday of our great country of Canada. It's 'All Aboard,' everyone! After all, Canada started with a train able to go from sea to sea.

There are many things taking place to help us celebrate Canada's birthday. To encourage our youth to be a part of the celebration, a nation-wide Canada Day Poster Challenge was held. The theme for this contest was 'Canada from East to West - 100 Years Alberta - Saskatchewan.' Close to 7,500 young people aged 18 and under submitted posters. The winner was Jennifer Truong, a 14-year-old girl from Regina, Saskatchewan. One of the twelve finalists was Devin Moar, a 13-year-old from Edmonton. Speaking of involving youth in celebration, the Province of Alberta, during its celebration year of 2005 is also not forgetting its youth. In fact, the parents of babies born in the year 2005 are being invited to open a Registered Education Savings Plan (RESP) for their child. The Alberta government will give $500 to help start saving for the newborn's post-secondary education.

That is great, we are remembering our youth. What about our ancestors? Just to illustrate the connection, let me ask you a question. Have you ever wondered why dogs walk in several tight circles before lying down? The answer: it is natural instinct! Wild dogs that lived in the forest or brush would have had to trample down the grass and weeds to find a comfortable place to rest. It has been speculated that domesticated dogs still carry their ancestors' instincts. So there you go - we are connected. We like to rest in comfortable places and we work at making it so.

My next question to you is, do we carry on something our ancestors die? Of course we do! Canada became a country on July 1, 1867. Our ancestors felt it was important to establish the country of Canada from sea to sea. We are still agreeing, so we are still carrying on something they started. We understand and accept the fact that the hardships of the pioneers, explorers and the First Nations led to the creation of the wonderful nation we know as Canada today. Today we are involved with the growth of our nation. As they say, Canada to each one of us is what we make it!

What about the Province of Alberta (and Saskatchewan)? They both began in 1905. In fact, I believe some of you have ancestors who were here in 1905. They could be your grandparents or great-grandparents. So really, your celebration is historical and personal. Then again, some of you share a history of both Alberta and Saskatchewan as your ancestors came from Saskatchewan to Alberta. But I can't forget, some of you came from any of the other provinces or territories of Canada any time during the last 100 years. You are here because it has become your home. It is a comfortable place for you to live because you are working at making it so. Wait a minute! Some of you are here because you came from other countries of the world. You have also helped to make this place comfortable not only to yourselves but to all the rest of us. So really, what I am saying is we are all different with many different, diverse backgrounds, but to each one of us, this is our home and we enjoy being here. So let us all come aboard and celebrate Canada's and Alberta's birthdays. See you in Elk Point!

Letter to the Editor Flower-napping disheartening

To the Editor:

Wanted! The person or persons responsible for the removal of a very rare and delicate flower from our property.

We have just recently purchased some property, and are discovering all of its hidden wonders and treasures. Last Sunday a beautiful little flower was pointed out to me. It was discreetly hidden behind the house, so I was not too concerned about its removal at this present time.

Yet to my disgust and disappointment, when I went on Tuesday evening it had been dug up!

Just because we are not living on the property yet, does not make it a vacant lot. People have been rummaging through the buildings and now taking flowers! It is very disheartening to know that in a small town like Elk Point, where everyone knows their neighbour, that we must resort to a "No Trespassing" or a "Keep Out" sign.

And to the person who took my Golden Lady Slipper, know that every time you look at it, it wasn't yours to take!

A wide array of prizes, large and small, were up for grabs at the Lions Night Golf tourney, thanks to the generosity of numerous donors.

Good support for Night Golf

Elk Point Oilmen's Association president Don Mudryk presented $500 to Elk Point and District Lions rep Keith Campbell for the Lions Night Golf fundraiser. The Lions were raising funds for a blood pressure monitor for the Elk Point Health Centre.

Close to 80 merchandise prizes, plus hats, pens, lighters and other small items were donated to the Elk Point and District Lions for their recent Night Golf fundraisers. And that wasn't all: eight silent auction items, a golf bag for the winner of the chipping contest, a putter for the putting contest and a potential $1,000 prize for anyone making a hole in one on the afternoon round were also donated to the hard-working club's annual event.

"The generosity was contagious," Lion Keith Campbell said, noting that even businesses in Rainbow Lake, where he works, had been eager to contribute to the cause.

This year's Night Golf had the best turnout on record, and Campbell says this may stem from an idea put forward by the Golf Club, to start off the year with a fun tournament. The change from the end of the golfing season to the beginning was a good move for the Lions, he adds. "Night Golf has been losing interest lately. We lost money last year for the first time ever."

With the turnaround in popularity, Campbell says, "this year we should earn the most ever. We should be able to purchase at least one blood pressure monitor for the Health Centre, which is our goal."

Direct Talk About Energy Deregulation

To our natural gas and electricity customers,

Recent events have created some confusion in the market surrounding regulated natural gas and electricity. Direct Energy Regulated Services is committed to keeping you informed about energy deregulation and customer choice.

On June 8th, 2005, the Alberta government released a paper which clearly reinforced its commitment to the continued development of an energy market that provides choice to Albertans. Consumers will continue to have the choice of staying on a regulated natural gas and/or electricity rate or choosing a competitive energy product from an energy retailer.

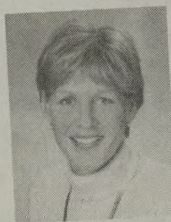

We'd like you to know that regulated natural gas and electricity rates will continue to be reviewed by the Alberta Energy and Utilities Board (EUB). The changes to the regulated electricity rate, announced by the Alberta government on June 8th, will continue to provide Albertans with a regulated rate option well beyond 2006. The regulated electricity rate was always planned to be extended - only the way it will be calculated after July 1, 2006 is changing. The regulated electricity rate will continue to be based on market pricing, but after July 2006 it will be calculated monthly instead of quarterly. This transition will enable consumer protection, choice and competitive markets to evolve effectively.

If you choose to leave the regulated rate and enter into a competitive contract for natural gas and/or electricity, you will be choosing:

- a competitive energy retailer
- an energy product
- the length of your commitment to that competitive energy product

All of us at Direct Energy Regulated Services are committed to keeping you informed about Alberta's energy industry. For more information visit:

Lakeland Peeewe League Champions

Red Dogs Win Slowpitch League Finals

The Red Dogs, shown with their cheering squad, won over the Sky Chiefs in the 'A' final of the Elk Point Slowpitch League windup tourney. The Plug Jumpers defeated the Shakers, and KAST won over the M & Ms in the 'B' and 'C' finals.

Shriners donate to soccer

St. George's Masonic Lodge representatives Dean Berg, Dennis Heney and Bob McRae visited Elk Point's soccer fields on a rainy evening to present a new set of soccer jerseys to Elk Point Soccer representative Jackie Ludlage, whose daughters Hannah and Madeline try on the shiny new attire.

I bet this one goes into the record book as one of the greatest victories in Elk Point minor ball history. This is the way a final ball game should end - St. Paul and Elk Point Peeewe going head to head in the final game. Bottom of the seventh, the game is tied, Brett Lindquist comes to bat and hits an in-the-park home run, the Elk Point Peeewe win the Lakeland League championship. The hometown crowd just loved it, head coach Lorn Berg and his peeewe boys hoisting the Lakeland league championship trophy high into the air.

It took a solid team effort all weekend by all the boys, who just barely made it into Sunday after losing to Goodfish on Saturday in round robin and then beating Cold Lake. All three teams were tied and the runs-for-and-against formula had to be used to determine the outcome, the Elk Point team coming out on top of their pool. They then faced Bonnyville on Sunday morning in the semi final, Dylan Loughran getting the start, Dylan Berg in the middle and Dustin Berg coming in to shut them down. Chevy Botting had a grand slam, plus another homer on the weekend. Dylan Berg started the final game, Dustin Berg going five strong innings to end the game. It was an excellent job by all the parents involved in hosting this tournament. Let's hope we can keep these boys together because in only a few short years they will be moving up and playing for the Sox.

Speaking of the Sox, they had a real bad case of the fumbles on Sunday, way too many fielding errors to mention, although the batting was slightly better than last weekend but still below par. The Sox were playing in Spruce Grove again this past weekend; the first game against Edson, the Sox lost by 10 runs in five innings. Lee "BoBo" Letestu was on the mound to start, Ryan "Little M" MacDonald and Tyler Loughran in relief. Lead off batter Brett

Younghans went three for three, Lee Letestu with two singles, Nicky Myshaniuk, Tyler Loughran and Tate Jensen all hitting singles.

Even though the doctor had advised him to stay off his leg for another two weeks, Nicky "Catfish" Myshaniuk was back in the lineup and on the mound in the second game. Have you ever notice how you can't hold a real competitive player back? Hobbling around, he gave it a honest effort, holding the Devon Diamondbacks to five runs, the score five to two right up into the seventh inning. At one point in the game, the Sox loaded the bases with none out, only to have the next three batters go down three straight. That's the way some days go, and it's one way to take the air right out of your sail.

This coming weekend the Sox will be playing another round robin, although the exact location wasn't known at press time.

Murray Cochrane and his bantam girls won the B-side of the Lakeland League windup tournament up in Pierceland on Saturday. Even though they lost the first game to St. Paul, pitcher Laryssa Cochrane struck out eleven batters. The second game the girls defeated Bonnyville 15 to 7, sending them to the final against Cold Lake, Justyne Wozniak on the mound doing a fine job, and a grand slam for slugger Bailey Younghans cashing in the winning runs.

And now for the K. A. Campbell's quote of the week: "I learned a long time ago you're wasting your time trying to make a player use his head." Last week's answer to: "No two pitches throughout the entire nine innings should come up to the plate at the same speed.... Don't let the batter get stepping in time with your rate of speed. If they step with your pitch, they can hit the fastest thing you throw." - Grover Cleveland Alexander.

Leadership award for Randy Jacobson

Copy Submitted

On June 8, 2005, the Persons with Developmental Disabilities (PDD) Alberta Provincial Board publicly honoured Randy Jacobson with a Norm McLeod Leadership Award for his significant contributions to the community of St. Paul. Doreen Bean, nominated for the Dreamweaver Award, and Clarence Turner nominated for the Leadership Award, received certificates of recognition for their accomplishments.

The Dreamweaver Award recognizes individuals dedicated to improving the quality of life for people with developmental disabilities through community inclusion. The Leadership Award honours adults with a developmental disability who have inspired others through their achievements and demonstrated leadership.

In her position as Chair of the St. Paul Library Board, Bean has introduced many innovations to ensure the library's facilities are accessible for all patrons. Under Bean's guidance, for instance, the library has added adaptive workstations for the disabled and "E-mail Tuesdays" offering support to patrons wishing assistance with e-mail.

Despite the many challenges he has handled over the years, Turner has set an example as a valued employee making meaningful contributions to his community. He is well known in St. Paul as a hard worker who has helped build acceptance for those facing obstacles in their lives.

Jacobson is an active board member with numerous organizations, such as the St. Paul Abilities Network, the St. Paul Community Council and the Positive Peoples Society. Recently Jacobson founded an organization based on the Big Brother model to serve young people in the St. Paul area. He is always ready to reach out as an advocate and a mentor.

At the awards ceremony, Betty Thompson, Chair of the PDD Alberta Provincial Board, said, "We salute the contributions of these nominees, all of whom are acknowledged leaders in their communities. Their example furthers the values of community inclusion within our province."

Elk Point United bids farewell to Rev. Jope and Karen Langejans

Breaking Bread

Rev. Jope Langejans blesses the bread for his final communion in Elk Point.

Community Choir Adds a Special Touch

A large contingent of Elk Point Community Choir members filled the choir loft for Sunday's special service, in tribute to Rev. Jope and Karen Langejans, who have become valued members of the choir during their years in Elk Point.

A Piece of Elk Point

Joep and Karen Langejans were delighted with the gift of a little piece of Elk Point to take with them to their new home in Forestburg: a painting of the church by local artist Donna Dahmer-Chamberland (far right). Hollie Myshaniuk (second from right) and Don Conrad (not shown) made the presentation, "from a community that has you tucked in their heart."

Presbytery bids farewell

Debbie Springer of the St. Paul Presbytery presented the Langejans with a framed certificate and gift of appreciation.

In Memoriam

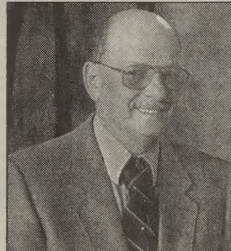

BERG, Dennis

In loving memory of Dennis Berg, who passed away July 2, 1989.

Fond are the ties that are broken
Dear is the one that is gone,
In memory we shall keep him
As long as the years roll on.
As we loved him, so we miss him,
In our memory he is dear
Loved, remembered, longed for always,
Bringing many a silent tear.
"In silence we remember."
